More Information

Location: nestled in a riverine forest of raffia palms and acacias, with a private access to the Rhino Sanctuary and Meru National Park, Rhino River Camp is a design camp with tents built on wooden platforms overlooking the glittering Kindani river.

Accommodation: 7 comfortable tents with own bathroom and a small tent for reading or relax; Karen Blixen Suite, for honeymooners or families, has two large rooms connected and two bathrooms. It can accommodate four adults comfortably or two adults and three or four children.

A large swimming pool with wooden sundeck and a public area with dining room and living room open on the forest.

Experience: Meru National Park the complete wilderness, has a great variety of wildlife and habitats: crossed by 13 permanent rivers the park offers semi-arid bush spotted with doum palms, swamps, riverine forests, kopjies and stunning views on the Nyambeni Hills. 88 white and black rhinos, gerenuk, lions, leopards, cheetah, herds of elephants, buffaloes, Grevy zebra, Beisa oryx, Somali ostrich, over 450 birds. Our activities include game drives led by our professional guides in Meru National Park, bush meals, fishing in one of the rivers, ornithological walks and hiking to the extinct volcano Kilimajero enjoying a sundowner on top of the rim with dramatic views of the park and the Nyambeni Hills. Cultural visit at the village. Taste our mouthwatering cuisine made with fresh organic produce daily picked by our chef from our vegetable garden or indulge in a massage or a beauty treatment after an exciting safari.
